

Figure C-3. ‘One Hertz’ whistlers at a bow shock crossing. The upper panels show resolved magnetic field magnitude and latitude, while the bottom panels show 3 second (spin period) Wind/3DP plasma moment data. Solar wind electron and ion velocity moments are well measured, though plasma processes occurring on whistler timescales are highly aliased in spin resolution data.